NANDI HILL STATION.

(Managed by the Government of Mysore.)

Nandi Hill Station (4851 feet), 35 miles from Bangalore, has a salubrious climate. The temperature on the hottest summer day is about 80° and on the average it is ten degrees cooler during nights than that of the surrounding plains. The fortress is of historic interest. There are train and motor bus services. The motorable road to the top of the Hill is nearing completion. During the season railway concession tickets are available. A Government Dispensary and an Ayurvedic Vaidyasala are kept up. There is a telegraphic and telephone connection from Nandi Railway Station to the top of the Hill. The Bungalows have fine rooms provided with furniture and electric lights and are suitable for all classes of people. Water tap connections have been given to all the buildings. There are both European and Indian Hotels. Fecilities for outdoor and indoor games are provided. Post Office and Police Station are opened during the season.

The scenery is picturesque with beautiful gardens and shady walks. Further particulars may be obtained from the undersigned.

OFFICE OF THE MANAGER, GOVERNMENT EXPERIMENTAL FARM, HIRIYUR.

Notification dated 24th February 1937.

1. It is hereby notified for the information of the public that the old and unserviceable articles of this Farm as enumerated below will be sold by public auction on Monday the 29th March 1937 at the Farm premises of the Government Experimental Farm, Hiriyur, at 3 P.M.
2. The materials will be made available for examination on any day before the date of auction.
3. The materials will be sold in groups by the Farm Manager.
4. Each group will be knocked down to the highest bidder.
5. The groups of articles will be at the risk of the purchaser from the time of sale.
6. All articles should be removed from the Farm premises as soon as payment therefor is made completely.
7. The purchase price should be paid in full on the spot when the purchase of each group is Rs. 25 and under. In other cases, a deposit of 25 per cent of the purchase price of each group should be paid on the spot and the balance within three days. In either case, the articles will be permitted to be removed from the Farm premises only on full payment.
8. In case of default in payment of the full purchase price by any bidder, the articles will be resold at his risk and expense and the bidder will be liable for any loss incurred thereby. He will not, however, participate in any profit. Deposit of 25 per cent made, if any, will also be forfeited to Government.
9. The groups will have to be removed with faults and errors of all descriptions as sold.
